

A NEW GRACE CHAPEL.

THE ONE IN FOURTEENTH-ST. TO BE SOLD.
PROPERTY PURCHASED ON THE EAST SIDE FOR NEW BUILDINGS.

The Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, rector of Grace Church, in his sermon on Sunday morning last, told of the work of Grace Chapel, No. 132 East Fourteenth-st., and appealed for aid to continue the work in the tenement-house district. It was then announced that the chapel would give way in a short time to more extensive and appropriate buildings.

Dr. Huntington was asked yesterday by a Tribune reporter in regard to the proposed changes, but he declined to discuss them. It was learned, however, that the corporation of Grace Church had been carrying on negotiations for some time for a large site east of First-ave., between Fourteenth- and Fourteenths. It is said that last Thursday a contract was signed for ten city lots, Nos. 409 to 414 East Fourteenth-st., and Nos. 405 to 413 East Thirteenth-st., the property is 200x2000 ft. deep. The greater part of the ground is at present occupied by the Langdon & Granger Brewing Company. The price to be paid for the entire property is $150,000. When the contract was signed $6,000 was paid down to bind the parties. Of this sum the Langdon & Granger Brewing Company received $6,000, and the owners of two tenement-houses included in the purchase $500 each. The buildings on the site will be torn down and the work on the new buildings will be begun about May 1. Grace Chapel in Fourteenth-st., will be sold and the proceeds used in payment of the East Side Iselin & Co. and other commission merchants, but it is said the goods are covered by advances. Another attachment for $7,250 has been obtained in this city against the Damon Manufacturing Company, cotton flannels, of Westvale, Mass., in favor of Marshall B. Clark.

Deputy Sheriff Mulvaney yesterday received an execution for $8,246 against the El Oro Mining Company, of No. 16 Beaver-st., on a judgment obtained in Onondaga County by Patrick Lynch.

Mechanics' liens aggregating about $22,000 have been filed against Jacobson & Marzovitz, contractors and builders, by creditors, and that firm has filed a lien for $16,030 against Henry Paschini, owner of Nos. 253 to 265 Elizabeth-st., which the firm was building.

Deputy Sheriff Mulvaney has received an attachment for $7,740 against Charles A. White, who recently married a wealthy Cheyenne widow, in favor of Henry L. Brant. Of the amount claimed $250 is for legal services, on which $10 has been paid, and the balance commissioners for finding a purchaser of the property. The firm has filed a lien for $16,030, which White, after consultation with Mr. Brant, is after the $10,000 deposited in lien of him in the United States Circuit Court, and the attachment was served on John A. Shields, as clerk of that court.

ANOTHER COMPLAINT AGAINST W. P. DREW.

An additional charge of forgery was made yesterday afternoon against the Rev. William P. Drew, the Baptist minister, now locked up in Jefferson Market Prison, charged by his former employers, Dodd, Mead & Co., with forging orders for books. The second complaint alleges that Drew forged the name of D. C. Link, a bookseller, of No. 239 East Sixty-first-st., to an order for a set of E. P. Roe's books, valued at $10. Drew was held in $1,000 bail on the second complaint.

FOR ST. LUKE'S HOME FOR AGED WOMEN.

Saturday afternoon at Sherry's Mrs. Mand Howe Elliot will give her popular talk, "With Booth in Hardest End," for the benefit of the St. Luke's Home for Aged Christian Females. The St. Luke's Home is in Madison-ave., and Eighty-ninth-st., and provides a shelter and home for aged women. The entertainment to be given will be in charge of the managers of the home and under the patronage of Bishop and Mrs. Henry C. Potter, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Morgan Dix, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parish, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mrs. Eliza Root, Miss Calender, Mrs. Charles F. Roe and others.
